

yourself or your Deputy with the Collector jointly to sign one of the two Bills of Entry brought in by the Merchant of all such Enumerated plantation Goods as shall be Entered by him, which is to be a Warrant to you or your Deputy to Examine the Goods by - And you are from time to time to inspect the Books of Entries and Accounts of the said Collector to see that due Entries be made of all Warrants granted by him - And to take care that no greater quantity of Goods be shipped than for what there is a Warrant from the said Collector - And if more Goods be shipped than for which the Duty shall be paid or Agreed for you are to seize & prosecute the same according to law.

4. And if any of the said Goods chargeable which the Duties are imposed by the said Act of the 25th year of his late Majesty's reign shall be laden on Board any Ship or Vessel before the Master of such Ship or Vessel hath made Entry thereof according to the Act for preventing Frauds and the Statute made primo Eliz. cap. 11. such Master is liable to the penalty of One hundred pounds by virtue of the said laws.

5. And whereas the Act made in the 22nd & 23rd years of his late Majesty's reign for Regulating the Plantation Trade is expired you are to take Notice that Ships may give Bond according to the aforesaid Act of Navigation to return to England or Ireland; But you are also to take Notice that the said Act of the 25th of the King imposeth the Duties therein mentioned upon the Enumerated plantation Goods in case they be laden before Bond be given to bring them to England, Wales or Berwick and to no other place, that therefore where the Bond given before Loading shall be to carry the said Goods to England or Ireland