

that the Author thought himself his Majesty's Order in Council notwithstanding that this long before the Copy sent from your Lordship arrived in their diligent Search during the same course your Majesty's Subjects in the minds of the Majesty's good Subjects & for their being a means to settle an unwholesome that some thought but for the fact was at the first meeting out so far were the how from being the most ancient nations that when they first came in they were ^{ordered to be whipped} out notwithstanding the Government as by an order of Council the Copy which of is intended appears to the year so far now from being any considerable part that we are confident they will not make the fourth part of the fluence but were this hundred or below they would increase for both sets are daily increasing their declivities and other his Majesty's good Subjects & employing their utmost endeavours to prevent them from their Religion & some have been prevailed upon through we hope by the assistance of that Law in the Labours of good men to put a stop for the future to such things in fine may it please your Lordship this design is not only against that Law but establishing Protestant Religion there and that there might be no more Countenance given to it nor unto his Majesty's but there was under the Lord Balthazar who was a papist & as they say so it was Liberty of Conscience well without full Countenance to any but we are assured as by his Majesty's matchless Valour & Conduct he preserved our Lives & Fortunes from Destruction no less our Religion also & we hope to enjoy both & at the same time permit the full Exercise of Dissenters in their
