

Captain Bostock being asked in what manner he was to sail for Virginia says he has not yet got his complement of men to be borne on Board his Ship but that he will do his Utmost in the first fair Wind and weather proceeding.

M^r. Hannon the President was pleased to tell Capt^e Bostock that his men had not discreetly behaved themselves in imposing according to the warrant for that they had made such a noise that they had given an alarm to such men as might have been had for the service & getting drunk had let others go which they had taken
