

That the Deputies especially the Quakers do not conform to the act of Toleration as confirmed by the act of Religion in divers particulars first in not subscribing such declaration & Profession as is provided by that Law they should Secondly in not Registering their meeting Houses in the Several County Courts

That your Honours would be pleased further to recommend to the honorable house of Delegates the passing of an additional Act concerning religion wherein some penalty may be inflicted on such as professing themselves Protestants never attend the publick worship of God

8 That the Quakers & Papists be restrained from seducing her Majestys Protestant Subjects

Annapolis May 27th 1703

Resolv

Robert Owen

John Sharp

John Edwards

Jabriel D'Emilliane

Joseph Colbatch

John White

Ben Hobbs

Tho Cockshutt

Herb Hall

W^m Tipton

Tho Horwell

The honorable President acquaints the Board of his being informed of several considerable Quantities of Rum clark destinedly brought from Pennsylvania over the head of the Bay into this Province the same not being entered with the Officer therefore appointed or any Duty paid therefore for prevention whereof he proposes that the Clerk of this Board write to Mr Mathias Vander Hayden the Naval Officer at the head of the Bay to depute some person in Elk & Behemans River to prevent the same and that the said Naval Officer keep a good Correspondency with the Pricing Surveyor

Read the petition of George Muschamp and Geo