Came old Beale and brought a strange Indian and says that his Son who ^{taught} commands if had been out & past a great Circumference; having left two Rangers at Gunns house who when they came in were asked if they had killed any Deer and said they would go out and see, when ^{two of them} ~~one~~ and not above two hundred yards from the house rising the Hill they came just upon this Indian which they took and Charles Beale disarmed & carried him to old Addison. The Indian being asked whence he was and desired to answer in French ~~and~~ Pretended he had forgot most of that Language and seemed unwilling to speak in it but
