

At a small field at the Town and port of Amagolis Friday July 18th 1707.

Present as yesterday -

Silvester Welch and Cron Rawlings appearing before the Board. Silvester Welch acquainted his Excy Cron Rawlings told him he was lett to be an Evidence for the Queen. Cron Rawlings says its true he did tell Capt Welch so.
And says that Malitabell Holland told him she understood it came from Thomas Reading that the said Welch was lett out to be an Evidence for the Queen.

But Mr Malitabell Holland not being be had before the board at this present they desire his Excy will inquire thereinto.

Capt Welch again called in says last Sunday night about ten of the Clock in John Jacobs Pasture he met Richard Clarke upon a Lusty Gray Horse and called to him bid him stand off Clarke had a pistol stop within his Sackett on his left side a naked Rapier hanging on his wrist & a good Lusty Shak. Welch asked if he might not come up and shake hands with him he told him not and would not lett him come near him - Clarke told him the Council was to sit on Wednesday next and that he the said Welch was to be there Welch asked who told him so Clarke answered he had friends enough seemed very shy of the Declarant and believes he had been informed of the Declar-Intention. - Welch askt Clarke if he would come to his house he said no askt him if he would not give him a Mocking he promised he
