in the County Courts read and granted upon his Excs.
Inquiry of Col. Cursey and W. Secretary Lloyd, who were pleased to say they knew nothing of his Misbehaviour in his Practice but believed him to be a Diligent man in his Business. -

W. John Duval's Letter to W. Bladen read as followeth Viz: -

W. Bladen - March 15: 1708.

I was on Wednesday last at W. John Freeman's where I hear some very wicked Expressions come out of the mouth of W. Chew of Baltimore County who asked me what they intended to doe with Richard Clark whether they intended to hang him or no and before I could give him my answer I swore by God that if he was hang'd they had best do it in private I then replied to him if he was not hang'd he would not have Justice done him William Chew said nay I believe he has been a notorious Rogue but he said he could tell me of something else I asked what it was he said no hang it I don't care to speak of it - But I will tell you then he replies people say that Joseph
