The Council held at the Town and port of Annapolis June 12th 1708

His Excellency
His Excellency John Seymour Esq. Gov. in Council
Major Gen. Lloyd Col. Dunmire
Col. Holland Col. Courcy
Mr. Chesdyeu Mr. Young
Col. Greenfield.

Mr. George Thorold a Jesuite being brought before the Board - His Ex. was pleased to tell him he wondered what he had to do with his serv<sup>ts</sup> to seduce a poor sick mayd serv<sup>ts</sup> of his to change her Religion when all was dying -

The said Thorold owns that he saw a Woman at Mr. Carrolly where she came to him, but that he never saw her either before or after - and being asked if he knew her to be the Govern<sup>rs</sup> serv<sup>ts</sup> acknowledge he did.

His Ex. told him that he had before in a protestant house in this Town of Annapolis just under his Hosp. he came to Christened a Child in Contempt of y<sup>e</sup> Law.

Mr. Thorold answered he understood no body lived in the house but the Woman (whom he he Christened) who was a Catholique -
