It was humbly moved here, that whereas this Government inducall Nobles of the Union of her Kingdoms of England & Scotland into one Name of Great Brittain, and of the Alteration of her Majesty's Royall Title being no longer called Queen of England Scotland &c. But Queen of Great Brittain, that the Board would be pleased to consider whether it be not absolutely necessary

All Civil Comissions especially those respecting the Courts of Justice should be under the present Title of her Majesty as Queen of Great Brittain least the Omission thereof should not only be assigned as Error in the said Courts proceedings but reprobated at Home as a neglect & disrespect to her Most Sacred Majesty.

On Consideration whereof His Majesty & the Board are of Opinion that the said Comissions ought to run in y^e present Title of her Majesty as Queen of Great Brittain &c. and therefore It was ordered the said Comissions be altered to run in y^e said Title.

It falling under the Consideration of His Majesty and this Board whether it be
