

W. Pitt Rivers

... in the days of Order
... with great devotion
... about 12 o'clock he was struck with a very strong Convulsion, there could be no help in about two hours but continued to languish to sink away by degrees till near half past four after noon on Saturday Morning, when it pleased Almighty God to take her to his Mercies —

I Enclose to you the Proclamation of His Majesty Mat. which you will cause to be published throughout your Government.

The Queen's Proclamation is the appointment of the Lord Justice of the Peace for the Public Occurrences of the year. You will be surprised that great care has been taken to secure the public peace on this occasion and to suppress all the reports of these kind of occurrences to the great benefit of the Kingdom.

I am, your humble servant,
W. Pitt Rivers
Hon. Secy. to the Admiralty
The Admiralty
