

Memorandum

His Majesty's Council has already sent his Majesty's Letters to the Commander of his Majesty's Forces in Virginia, touching the State of their present Relation to the Army and Ammunition - His Majesty's Letters being That words are by the Commanders of the Majesty's Forces, Capt. Brown, and others
The Opinions of the Board: what Quantity of Ammunition may be sent from the said Stores for the Assistance of his Majesty's Subjects in that Province.

To which they say they cannot at present answer believing there is not any great Quantity of Ammunition in the publick Magazine at Annapolis, the rest being dispersed in the several Counties for their immediate Defence and Safety.

Capt. John Young Master Gunner & Storekeeper of the publick Magazine being sent for made Report of the State of the publick Magazine and particularly of the Ammunition therein - That there was but thirty three Barrells &
One hundred and fourteen Quarter Barrells of Gun powder twenty small pieces of Iron that thirty small casks of Balls Whereupon
