And then desired the Opinion of the Council whether the former objections against his Surrendering up the Govern^t without particular Directions from the Crown be not sufficiently answered —

Whereupon it appearing under his most Sacred Majesty's Sign Manual and privy Seal that he had been graciously pleased to approve of his being the Lord Proprietors Lieutenant and Governor in Chief in this Province —

All the members of his Majesty's Council now present unanimously answered they do think the said former objections are now sufficiently answered, and that it is their opinion and ~~advice~~ ^{advice} that his Excellency should forthwith
