

David Dalls is arrived, his leg is but skinned and not healed, so that he went not on shore in England. He went to Holland, with part of his own freight, and other Tobacco, and from thence is gone to New ~~England~~ Castle to land with coal, great part of his Tobacco and other is sold, some in England from 2^s to 4^s, some in Holland from 3^s to 6^s. Since ~~the~~ the Parliament was not chosen when he left England, and are not to sit till January, the Members are much the same, the High Church are up to it, especially in London, where four Merchants were designed for Members, by the ~~High~~ ^{Low} Church trading Party, but the High Church, use all Industry to strengthen their side, they take all out of Prisons to vote for them, ^{giving them} and their Guardians each a Guinea.
Mr. Carlton, who is not coming hither, but is actually under Confinement, & has a Statute of Bankrupt out against him, was taken out to Poll: The Emperor is not come in, nor is there any Peace between us: Landau is taken, and Munich besieged, the which will soon follow, the French carry all before them, and unless we secure the Peace of the Empire, we must soon joyn with the Emperor in another War wth France. The King of Sweden is not returned, but still in Adrianople, Marlborough with his Dutchess, is also in Germany, and the Queen is returned with the Princess. The
