

collation, is not allowed by you all, I can't but wonder thereat, it being every where tolerated, for my part I can't tell what to do, whether to allow leave for self, some days in Lent, is not that left to each one in particular, for my part I think good indulgenc.

I think to make my Exercise and collection next Month, so hope to see you toward the latter end thereof. Mr. Hall left two of my Books at Mr. Hall's pray desire him to send them hither, by y^e first Occasion, or to deliver them to you.

Mr. William Diggs supposes Mr. Poyer, carryed my powder flask away with him, if so desire him to make restitution, if so for it belongs to Mr. James Carroll, who has bought my Gun for 50. ster. My Eyes grow dim, and my Catechism is expiring, and it's now half an hour after eleven, so goodnight for this time, pray excuse this Letter for I believe it's all now over.
