

Dated the 21st Day of December, 1712, & particularly as to the first Paragraph thereof, acknowledges the said Letter, to be by him wrote, and deposeth on the Holy Evangelists, that what is therein meant by the several Expressions, in the first Paragraph, was in answer to a Letter he had some time before that, received, from the s<sup>r</sup>. M<sup>r</sup>. Killuck wherein he had requested, a Sight or perusal of a Sermon by the Deponent preached several times on the following Text, viz<sup>t</sup> Per totam Noctem Laborantes, nihil Capimus, which he had now by him, and to induce him the s<sup>r</sup>. Killuck to think, it might be more fit to be made away with before he saw him, he used the Expression if it be not condemned, to Lower Germany) and if the meaning of the Question, in the s<sup>r</sup>. Letter viz<sup>t</sup> was it not to stop my Mouth from the like success request; was that the Deponent mistrusted, the said Killuck had, ~~any~~ <sup>rather a</sup> designe to stop the Deponent's Mouth from asking, to see one of the s<sup>r</sup>. Killuck's Sermons, than that the s<sup>r</sup>. Killuck had any real designe, to see the Deponent; and that the s<sup>r</sup>. Killuck's ~~words~~ <sup>words</sup> convinces the Deponent Comparing himself with a young Novice to gain Experience from a more skillful person.
As to the second Paragraph, where mention is made of M<sup>r</sup>. James Carroll's liberality, the Deponent can offer made by the s<sup>r</sup>. James Carroll to M<sup>r</sup>.
Killuck, of a Tract of about three hundred Acres.
