 Equity, the publick Good will be rightly maintained, the Subjects both by their Duty and Interest will support me in my Authority Gentl^{man} of Lower House

It will readily observe of necessity affecting their business if they were the Lord Proprietaries, as they formerly did, when this Government was first instituted by his noble ancestors. The manner and the Method of doing this by of most easy & effectual means is recommended to your Consideration — always to ^{be} regard to making Charges as light as ^{possible} to the People: for I am so sensible of the Burthen of long and frequent Assemblies that I am willing to ease them for my part of of Charges of the Peale, on this Occasion

The Experience I have gained, since I have resided among you, that legal motions difficult, nay almost impossible for you to comply with your Oaths, in many Herd, according to the Tenor of your Oaths, from the Lord Proprietaries — from y^e ^{ex}perience of these hardships you were like to labour under, had in order to y^e Relief of y^e Case before his Lordship's Guardian
