

& Company to serve the term of And forasmuch as fifty of them — have been sold to the best purchasers as by the list hereunder written is expressed And that John Sheffold is dead and Humphrey Sward & Alexander Macgiffin have employed themselves, To and that his Majesty's pleasure may be duly complied with in this province And that the said runaway rebels be retaken & subjected to his Majesty's Commands by proper Certificates by me to be granted therefore and that the traiterous & wicked Attempts & Designations of the said Rebells may be entirely avoided & their persons secured within this province During the term of I have thought fitt by and with the advice of his Lordships the said proper Council to Issue this my proclamation repealing the same And Commanding & requiring all Officers military & civil and especially all Sheriffs Magistrates & Constables to use their utmost Endeavour upon notice or knowledge of any the said rebels — absenting themselves from their said Masters or purchasers to apprehend & secure their persons and oblige them to continue in their bounden service according to his Majesty's Royal direction and particularly to apprehend the said Humphrey Sward & Alex. Macgiffin And bring them before me to be dealt with according to Justice and their demerits And further I do hereby will require all Officers Magistrates Sheriffs & Constables and others his Majesty's good subjects within this province in case of any the said rebels being set free by their respective Masters or purchasers Immediately to apprehend and bring them before the next Magistrate who is hereby required to Obey them