

Against his most Excellent Majesty's —

That as to the latter part of the Instruction Relating to Delivering up the Seal, he shall Readily Comply with it at his Departure —

As to the third Instruction —

His Excellency Desires the Opinion of this Board, whether they look upon it, he is to have any Support by the Law of this Province which Provides for the Support of Government, During his Absence —

Whereupon It is the Unanimous Opinion of this Honorable Board, That there is no Provision made by that Law for his Excellency's Support During his Absence —

UPON which his Excellency is Pleas'd to Observe that (If so) he has no benefit from the Intention of that Law from the Time of his Departure, by which Instruction he is Unanimously of Opinion that his Majesty's Grace & favour Intended to him is Evaded, by totally Removing him from his Office, Instead of (giving)
