

to desire your greatest regards to the placing of these people if they can be as they have expressed it by obliging your Indians to make them such satisfaction as your wisdom you shall think most proper that his Majesty's Subjects in this Country may not be troubled in a general war with all the Nations of Indians depending with these Kingdoms by any answer from your Majesty

I have thought proper to write you
I am Sir your most Obedient humble Servant

Charleston August 19 1721 — Charles Culver

May you will excuse this I am Sir
Great Sir

The Governor appointed in Council tomorrow morning to consult further about the Indians the Governor being informed that you understood some difficulty to get to Virginia and that some of them was unwilling to return unless there was a Boat provided for them

Sunday Morning August the 20th 1721

This Boat which was used as present as yesterday

The Indians being and for again appeared before this Board

When upon the Governor acquainted the said Indians that there was a Boat provided for them for their transportation to Virginia and that it will be ready for them to Morrow Morning

And he further tells them that the said Boat was purely provided for them out of good will to them that they might go to Virginia with more ease and safety

Thereupon the said Indians returns the Governor thanks

And the Governor further acquaints them that the Gov.
of Virginia is a very kind man and would take care of them when they were there