

they had some design of forcing his steps upon the way in the deposition immediately made up the door of service house and stood in the door way of another house which was the dwelling house this I questioned further depositions that Mr Evans had company being come up to the house Mr Evans demanded of this deposition if he had step upon the, to which this deposition answered in the affirmative, then Mr Evans said I am going to the City. and then to take in law of what he said, told this deposition, that he would have kept all these people to come out of the house, to which this deposition replied that he would not, and he the said Evans asked this deposition who he pretended to hold his land under, he replied my Lord Baltimore, and that he would not bring down to his land, he the said Evans then required this deposition a second time to come out of the house, and then turning about and talking with his company, they went immediately to cutting the Trees that this deposition had fallen with a design to build a Log House and drew in some of them near to the house of this deposition, with a design as he thought to build a house there, upon which this deposition went immediately to a Justice of Peace of Cecil County, but finding no relief that way, returned again to his plantation and found that company so expeditious in building a Log House that they had already raised it all toward three Log height upon this deposition returned back to further deposition that seeing what they were about he persuaded the said Evans & his company from cutting his Wood and committing any further trespass upon his land, I dont mind you replied Evans, you will say that so they finished the house and gave
