 increased by the meeting of this Assembly at the time already mentioned and for certain other Affairs and Considerations as the same moving we have thought with the advice of our Council to prorogue this Assembly to the second Tuesday of October next and by these presents we do prorogue the same accordingly when and where we will and require that the several members of the Upper and Lower House of this Assembly and to consent and Agree to those things which they want thereby the favour of God shall happen to be obtained and to the end that all persons may have due and timely notice hereof we strictly Command Our several Sheriffs within this Province that they without delay publish this our will in the most publick places of their respective Counties whereof they are not to fail at their peril In Testimony whereof we have made this writ patent
