

called by me for Mr. Living who was in that Company During Mr. Penn's last stay in America viz. in the year 1700 and yet the Government of Maryland was then in the Government the Inhabitants of the two Provinces were so well acquainted from each other that there was no occasion to talk of the Boundaries with any earnestness or contention but soon after Mr. Penn's departure for England some persons of Chester County in Pennsylvania applied themselves to those called the Commissioners of Property whom Mr. Penn had left in trust with his Proprietary Mr.
 Lawrence Grant of that Part of Land now called Mr.
 : : : : : which then appearing to be considerably to the Southward of any Settlement yet made by Pennsylv:
 : : : : : the said Commissioners of Property at first refused the Grant lest it might occasion misunderstandings and disputes between the two Governments but the parties con:
 : : : : : having repeated their application with great Im:
 : : : : : at last with the assistance of Henry Ho:
 : : : : : the then Surveyor for Chester County prove to the Commissioners that the whole Tract of Nottingham by them demanded and afterwards proved to lay to the Northward of that Line from the Mouth of Occochee which the said Char:
 : : : : : himself had fixed as his Boundary to the Northward, and some of the Commissioners themselves being of the number of those who had accompanied Mr.
 : : : : : from Maryland to Chesapeake in the year 1700 as is above related and very well remembering the above men:
 : : : : : particular expressions which passed between Mr.
 : : : : : and the Gentlemen of Maryland at Occochee Point they could not but think themselves as they still do