

Limite
 The said Survey and Grant of the Tract called New Marsh is not to be our Proprietors undoubted Right and with all due Caution and Consideration not to interfere with the Claims of Maryland in case that said called Tracts manner should be added to the said Proprietor and Nottingham should appear to be within the Bounds of that Province as alledged from late Discoveries said to be made concerning it; there is the greater Reason to expect that the said Baltimore more as General Proprietor may be the better, desirous to let these Subscribers remain unmolested till such time as it shall appear whether the Country where those Lands lie shall on the full determination of the Boundaries prove truly to be his Right, especially since as this Board has been informed, the Enlargement of the first Grant of that Province being upon a very slender Consideration seems to have been regarded as a thing of little or no Value to him but as it could be obtained out of another Province by the Endeavours of the Grantee otherwise it appears difficult to account why the said Baltimore should so easily part with so vast a tract of Land for only a Trifle

That of the Survey and Grant of the Tract called New Marsh etc of so ancient a date as the Letter expresses yet it was not known nor heard of by any in this Province (as far as can be discovered by this Board) for a Great many Years after and that the Surveys and Settlements made thereon in right of Pennsylvania by purchases in England above forty years old were made innocently without ^{the least} suspicion that any persons right was invaded by that Settlement and if it prove true that the said Bounds of it are so uncertain that (as is alleged) the Lines now Claimed in by half a mile in their prescribed
