

May it please your Excellency

The foregoing is a State of the Case of Taylor and his Companions relative to the Depositions I have lay me with the best Solution I am capable of giving to the Question your Excellency and the Honble Council were pleas'd to desire my opinion in which is humbly submitted to your Excellency by

Sir

Your Excellency's most humble and Obedient Servant

D. Pulany

His Excellency having acquainted the Board that Mr Jackson one of the Justices of Cecil County Court can produce several material Evidences against Taylor and Gatchell bound over to their Tryal next Provincial Court thereupon Ordered that directions be given to the chief Justice of Cecil County and his Brethren in Commission to examine and bind over to the provincial Court all such persons as shall appear to be good evidences against said Taylor and Gatchell and the following Order was made out and sent viz

By the Governor and Council March the 2<sup>d</sup> 1722

You are hereby Ordered to examine and bind over in a Sum equal to those already bound over in the same Case all such persons as shall upon examination appear to be good evidences against Isaac Taylor and Elisha Gatchell to give their Evidence against the said Taylor and Elisha