

Since Indians for whom this Government has a just Esteem and Friendship the Governour and Council are Glad to see them and tho they never had sent for them yet in regard they were our Friends and had come down to visit us the Governour and Board thought fit to Give them three Rings each one & Blue Stew'd Match Coat and to their War Captains and Woman Interpreter each one Red ^{Stew'd} Match Coat but that they had nothing else to Offer only that this Governour will always be Glad to maintain Peace and Amity with them so long as they Behaved themselves in a friendly manner towards us
