His Excellency the Governor desires the Opinion of this Board whether it is most convenient further to prorogue their election the usual time of their sitting expiring the middle of July next

Wherupon it is the Opinion of this Board that the same be further prorogued to the first of July next and that if his Excellency does not receive any Instructions requiring their meeting on or before the ninth day of June next that then their proclamations of dissolution of the same as well as writs of Election be issued a new Assembly be returnable the fifth of October next then to enter upon Business

To which his Excellency concurs
