Annapolis July 25th 1726

As with a great deal of Concern that we are to acquaint you that this Session of Assembly is now come to a Conclusion without affording us any Reason of doing our selves the Honor of communicating to you the agreeable News of our Burgesses Concurring in the same Sentiments with our People in relation to a good and beneficial Tobacco Law so necessary at this time both for the preservation of great Numbers of our good People of Maryland and for the Improving the Staple thereof
