

Rejoicing throughout this City and Suburbs

The same day the Parliament was dissolved by Commission from his present Majesty to the 27th of this Instant June

New Commissions in the name of his Majesty King George the second are Cut out for all the Officers, Civil and military

To morrow evening the Court goes into Mourning for twelve months for the late King his Majesty has Ordered that the men wear Buttons on their Coats & Hast coats down to the Throat and the Sleeves and Pockets to be plain

Boston Gazette

Boston August the 21st 1727

On Monday last the 14th Instant arrived here Captain Samuel Carey in seven weeks passage from London by whom we have the following Intelligence in the publick papers viz

London June 16th

We hear that his late Majesty King George was very much Indisposed after he landed in Holland and the Fatigue of his passage by Sea but being very desirous to finish his journey without <sup>making</sup> any considerable stay upon the Road he travelled after the rate of one hundred and fifty miles a day and would not take Regular Rest or Refreshment on Thursday he was very ill again on Friday something better and at his Dinner heartily but afterwards grew very ill and was blooded upon the Road on Saturday he reached Amaburg where he died about three a Clock on Sunday morning at his