

said Joseph was then mowing his Buckwheat, and after throwing down his fence in several places some taking up stakes & some stones they in a very rude manner with these stones treading and riding through the grain surrounded the aforesaid Jos: Patrick and immediately seized a certain Andrew Magill an aged man of about 60 or 70 who was assisting the aforesaid Jos: in gathering his wheat and by their pulling the man down in such a manner the aforesaid Ogle kept up to them & says Gentlemen what do you mean I beg you will not abuse the man then letting the man get up the Sheriff of Lancaster Robert Buchanan pulled out of his pocket a paper which he told the said Magill was a writ which he the said Sheriff owed and forcing him away the said Andrew told the Sheriff that he holding himself in Maryland would not willingly surrender himself to them for that as he paid his Levy in Maryland if he owed them anything and they would apply to the Officers thereof he would readily submit But the Sheriff & all his Gang told him they would make him know that he should submit to them and that he was then in Pennsylvania and that they would force him away with them and did and further these Deponents say not

Taken before me

Wm. Rigby
 (Signature)

A. B.

The aforesaid Ogle lives on the Southside of Rodous on a tract of Land taken up by Andrew Magill of whom the aforesaid Jos Ogle bought it called the great Meadow

Maryland }
 Baltimore County } October the 18th 1735

The Deposition of Edward Evans who deposes as followeth.

That on the fourteenth Instant he went to the House of John Hendrick who keeps Ferry on the West side Susquehannah where he this Depont. sees M<sup>r</sup>. Edward Smout Justice of Lancaster County Thomas Smith high Sheriff of said County John Emerson and a great number of people who he supposed to be all Pennsilvanians and that he understood they came over into Baltimore County in order to arrest and take away a great many Persons and put all they could take into Lancaster Prison that they had taken two Men and further this Depont. saith not Taken before me

Wm. Rigby