

him he did not belong to Lancaster but that he did belong to Maryland, why did not Mr. Foxlight apply to the Laws of Maryland for he did believe the Laws of Maryland were as good Laws as Pennsylvania Laws, at which they damned him and bade him come along and fell to beating him again with their sticks and bade him get up behind the Sheriff? But this Depon't refusing said if he must go to Prison he would Walk & not ride, for which they every now and then gave him a Lick bidding him get up then behind the Sheriff then this Depon't desired they would take Security for his Appearance at Court But the Sheriff would not but after they had gone about a Mile & half on the main Road they came to Peter Cartney a Dutch Smith then they told this Depon't if his Countryman Peter would be his Security they would take him Upon which they all went into the House and sent for Peter Cartney when he came the Depon't says he told his Countryman Peter in Dutch not to be his Security for that they could not use him worse than they had Upon which Peter Cartney told the Sheriff he would not be Security for that he knew this Depon't had a Brother over the River that would be bound for him rather than he should go to Prison then the Sheriff with this Depon't & his Company all went on again for about three miles toward the River where they were met by five Dutchmen one of the Sheriff's Gang asked the Dutch Men where they were going, they making no Answer, one of the Sheriff's Men struck one of the Dutchmen as they were on Horse back another lusty Dutchman gets off his Horse and he could not stand & so that then they immediately all got to fighting Upon which this Depon't thought he would assist his Countrymen & went to pick up a Stick when an Irishman comes behind him & knocked him down with a Club where he lay he knows not how long but the first Passage this Depon't remembers after coming to himself was that he see the Sheriff and his Company running away Upon which his Countrymen the Dutchmen loosing their Horses got up and rode after them and in a very little time returned with the High Sheriff of Lancaster Robert Buchanan whom they told this Depon't they had Latched and went directly with said Sheriff to Capt. Cresap's, and further this Depon't saith not
