Sir

Viana 22. June 1742

About Six Weeks ago twenty odd Indians came to Viana and Inquired of them, where they came from, and they told me by their Interpreter, that they lived about 300 Miles off this Place, and the Name of the Place they lived at I can't remember, and when they went away they carried with them some of the Nanticoke Indians which said Nanticoke Indians are returned again, and Capt. Thomas Fiches and several Men of Good Credit came this Day to Viana and gave me Notice that there is not One Indian, Man, Woman or Child to be found in either
