

often observed that Panguash and Dixonbury held private conferences with the War Captain of the Shawan Indians, for two Nights together, and that within a few Days after the Shawan Indians went away, Dixonbury went over to a place called Winnavocum, and two Days after that Panguash followed him to the same place where they gathered all the Nations of Our Indians together, and this Examinant further saith that he has understood by several Indians since they returned from Winnavocum, that the whole Design of their Meeting there was to join the Shawan Indians in destroying the English.

James Chonk

1st July 1742 taken by Henry Hooper

The Examination of Sam Jaac, a Chicaean Indian, This Examination saith that when the several Nations of Our Indians met at the place called Winnavocum, he heard Sam Panguash, Dixonbury, Captain John, the Indian River Queen, and a Colonel of the Queens, an Indian River Doctor and One Simon of Broad Creek say, that they had made an Agreement with the Shawan Indians who were to be assisted with the Seneca Indians) to kill all the white people of Maryland, and that the Indians of those parts were to join our own Indians in a short time at Broad Creek in order to cut off the English in Somerset and Dorset Counties

his
Sam Jaac
Marks

1st July 1742 taken by Henry Hooper

The Examination of Indian Anthony This Exam. saith that sometime in the beginning of June last Panguash told him that he must go over to a place called Winnavocum where he expected to meet all the Indians in order to hunt for five or six Days This Examinant saith that he accordingly went over where he found