

Skins Matchcoats and Guns that the reason the Indians left their Town and went to Wunnawocum, was, to hunt get 800 Skins & chuse an Emperor, that they carried the Old Men Women and Children with them from the Town, because they wanted Bread that they might partake of what they killed, and that the Indians left the Swamp because they heard the English knew of their being there

The Examination of Robert Harcourt a Somerset County Indian This Examinant saith that he did not hear of the Shuar Indians Design in coming down to kill the English, that Indian Tallouid came for him to go and meet the Chicacoan Indians at Wunnawocum to hunt and get Deer Skins to make an Emperor, but that not having Money enough they did not make an Emperor, that he knows not of any logg House in the Swamp, that He drank a spoonful of the Liquor prepared by the Indian River Doctor to make all well

The Examination of Indian Battello This Examinant saith that Panguash sent for him to meet the Chicacoan Indians at the Swamp to hunt and make an Emperor, that he staid three Days at the Swamp and then returned, that whilst he was at the Swamp He drank some of the Liquor prepared by the Indian River Doctor to do his Stomach good and keep off a Fever and Ague that the reason they did not chuse an Emperor was because they had not Skins enough This Examinant likewise saith that there was not any Proposal made to him by Panguash nor any One else to assist in killing the English

The Examination of Jimmy Ashquash a Chicacoan Indian This Examinant saith that he was at Wunnawocum with the rest of the Indians, and that most of the Indians who were there, were painted, and that he heard George Terraguel a French Indian say