

27th January 1757.

Ordered by his Excellency the Governor with the Advice of this Board that the present general Assembly, which was this Day to have met be further prorogued to Friday the 28th: Instant there not being a sufficient Number of Members of the Lower House; met to make a House, and Proclamation accordingly issued.

28th January 1757.

Ordered by his Excellency the Governor with the Advice of this Board, that the following Proclamation issue:

Maryland &c. By his Excellency Horatio Sharpe Esq^r: Governor and Comm. in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland.

A. Proclamation

Whereas the present general Assembly of this Province stands prorogued to Friday the 28th of this Instant January, and whereas it has been represented to me by the Members of the Lower House of Assembly now present in Town, that they apprehend there will not a sufficient Number of Members meet to make a House, I have therefore thought fit with the Advice of his Lordship's Council of State further to prorogue the same, and I do hereby further prorogue the same to Thursday the 10th of March next, and to the intent that all persons concerned may have due notice thereof, I do hereby strictly charge and require the several Sheriffs of this Province to make this my proclamation publick in their respective Counties in the usual manner as they will answer the contrary at their peril: Given at the City of Annapolis this 28th Day of January Anno Domini 1757.
