

And that he thought it necessary for the security of the Whole that the several Provinces should furnish by the following Propositions.

Pennsylvania	1400.	North Carolina	100.
Maryland	500.	South Carolina	500.
Virginia	1000.	which joined to the King's	} 1200.
		Troops
making in the Whole			5000. Men.

And the several Governors do engage to use their best Endeavours with their several Provinces to raise and support the above Number to act in conjunction with the regular Forces, and under the Command of his Majesty's General, or the Officer properly authorized according to his Majesty's Regulations.

The Meeting taking into Consideration the Situation of the several Provinces, and the Intelligence received from different parts, it appears to them that there is Danger of the Enemy making an Attack upon the Province of South Carolina, either by Sea from Saint Domingo or from the Albemarle Fort in the North Carolina Country, on the Head of the Mobile.

For which Reason they have agreed that there ought to be two thousand Men employed in the Defence of that valuable Province of South Carolina, and to secure Georgia, and that they should be composed as follows.

Five Companies of Regular Troops	500.
Three independant Companies	200.
Provincial Troops, raised by the Province of	} 500.
South Carolina
Provincial Troops from North Carolina	200.
Provincial Troops from Virginia	400.
Provincial Troops from Pennsylvania	200.
making in the Whole	2000. Men.

That the said Troops should be put under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Brouquet and transported to Charles Town in South Carolina as soon as possible, the regular Troops, and the two hundred Provincial Troops of Pennsylvania by Sea from thence,

The four hundred Provincial Troops of Virginia by Sea from and the two hundred Troops from North Carolina to march by Land.

The Earl of Loudoun on the Part of the Crown agrees, that he will at the King's Expence supply the two hundred Men from North Carolina, the two Men from Virginia, and the two hundred from Pennsylvania, with the King's provisions from the time they arrive in South Carolina during the Siege he keeps them there, but that he expects the several Provinces from whence they are detached should transport them there at the Expence of the Province from whence they are sent.
