

And to prevent any Mistake hereafter arising in Relation to any Demand that may be made, It is agreed that the several Provinces shall maintain the Remainder of the Troops raised by them for the Service in every Article, as on this Occasion they are actually employed in the Defence and for the Security of their respective Colonies.

And it is further agreed that as the Governors shall in our respective Provinces take particular Care to see such Regulations and to see them properly executed, that in all their coming Carriages for transporting the Baggage of his Majesty's Troops shall be prepared at stated reasonable Rates, and that all the Troops of whatever Denomination, either passing through our Provinces, or while in fixed Quarters therein shall in time of Peace be properly quartered, and in Time of War whatever Number of Troops the Commander in Chief may judge necessary for Defence, or carrying on the general Service shall be quartered according to Custom and the Urgencies of Service.

The above Resolutions are agreed to by the several Governors, and signed by us in Presence of the Earl of Loudoun his Majesty's Commander in Chief
