

required by the Laws of this Province, to this the Chief replied with some Harshness that he thought it would suffice to show his Brother the Governor, or those that he had sent to represent him the Prisoners, and the Scalps of the Enemies that they killed in Battle, that it was the Indians Custom to preserve as Trophies the Hair of the Enemies that they killed in Battle, and to carry them home to their own People, and in short that if they were not to have the Goods that had been talked of unless they would purchase them with their Prisoners or Scalps they would return home naked as they came thence, and that they would think no more of going to War if they were not allowed to keep what they set the highest Value on as it procured them most Honour among their own People, as the Chief (for many of the others did not) appeared to be much displeas'd with the proposal that had been made, or the Intimation that had been given him by Captain Davis we desired the Interpreter to drop the Affair but as we were not at Liberty to give them a larger Present than could be purchased with one hundred Pounds unless they would deliver up the Scalps to be destroyed agreeable to the Directions of the Act of Assembly and found that so small a Present as one hundred Pounds would not be acceptable we desired Mr. Davis the Interpreter to talk to them severally, and to endeavour by any Arguments that he should think fit to urge to persuade them to give up some of the Scalps, that we may be thereby enabled to make such an Addition to the Present given by the Assembly as might make it acceptable. In the Morning of the 21st Instant he assured us that he had used his utmost Endeavours to procure us either the Prisoners or some Scalps, but that Wahachey the Chief continued obstinate, and had declared that nothing should tempt him to part with the Prisoners, however that Yaughtasaw the second in Reputation and who was in fact much better affected than the other had promised him to send the Scalps as a Token to your Excellency afterwards though he could not deliver them up to be destroyed in such a manner as the Act directs lest he should be charged by his own People with selling them upon this. In our case we sent to Onegochieghe for two hundred Pounds worth of Goods more, and as soon as they were brought up we advised the Indians thereof, and desired to know if they would choose to receive them in the Afternoon, and to hear your Excellency's Answer to the Message which they had sent you by Mr. Jeffs, our proposal being accepted, the Goods as well those that were purchased with the one hundred Pounds granted by the Assembly as those purchased with the two hundred Pounds of the Price of four Scalps were after Dinner laid on a Table in two separate Piles, and when all the Indians, except a few who were left to guard the Prisoners were assembled, Captain Bull the Commandant of the Fort, Captain Armstrong who came thither from Pensilvania with a Message from Governor Dunning to the Sherkees, and several other Officers of the Maryland and Pennsylvania Troops being also present, we address'd
