

having sent you to deliver it; and you may be assured that so long as King George will furnish us with Clothes, I will continue to destroy his and our Enemies, I have been along here to War and having killed a few of the Enemy have received a small Present, but when I come this May again with my People, I will kill more of the Enemy and hope to receive a larger Present. I hope our Father King George will take care to furnish us with Clothes and I desire he might be informed of what I have already done, and of what I intend to do. The young Warrior called Yaughtanaw then put into his Hand the Scalps which he had promised us, and holding them up Mahackey proceeded when I came to Winchester I heard that the Enemy was murdering People in this Province, the News made my Heart ache, and I immediately pursued and came up with them, I have killed some of them, and to show my Brother the Governor that I have destroyed some of his, and my Enemies I send him this Hair, for which I expect my Brother will thank me, I gave the Scalps, he then signed the browser as it was taken down, and the Interpreter certified it to be a true Interpretation, as your Excellency will see by the Original here with presented. After he had done speaking we thanked him in a few Words for the Reply he had made and the Hair which he had given, and concluded with telling them that you would look on the latter as a Testimony of their Bravery, and Memorial of their Friendship.

As soon as we had finished Captain Armstrong and the other Gentlemen who were sent by Governor Denny to invite the Cherokees to Pennsylvania delivered their Message and Yaughtanaw the second Warrior gave them a short Answer. The Indians soon after took their leave appearing well satisfied, and went over to Virginia, carrying their two Prisoners with them, we also left the Fort the same Day, and returned towards Annapolis to inform your Excellency of our Proceedings, and to assure you that we are

and most obedient servants.

Brother Yaughtanaw of Chota.

I am very glad to find that the Talk which I sent to you, and my Brother of the Cherokee Nation by Mr. Waldenholme and Mr. Biddut was agreed, and that the Present which they delivered to you from me was acceptable. I persuade myself you are thoroughly convinced of my Friendship towards yourself and your Nation. I hope you will persuade your People to entertain the same Opinion of me, and that you will invite your young Men to come and join you to go out to War with you against our Enemies. I am very glad to hear of your late Success, which I look on as a good Omen, as a sign that the supreme Being the Father of us all approves of the Step you have taken.
