Prince Georges County for at November Court 1765.

Your Excellency's and Honours' Instructions communicated to us by a Letter from M^r. John Rose of the 15. of August last, we conceive to be chiefly intended to warn us, to be very vigilant in our Duty at a Time we were threatened with such immediate Dangers from our declared Enemies, and to deter every Person amongst us from offering in any manner to disturb the public Peace and Safety, and therefore delayed troubling your Excellency and Honours with any Returns, but being now called upon for a direct Answer by another Letter, we beg leave to acquaint your Excellency and Honours we will at all Times exert ourselves in the faithful Discharge of our Duty as Magistrates, and will endeavour to act on every Occasion as shall prove true Friends to our happy Constitution, and this we think the more incumbent on us to attend to considering the Dangers we are threatened with from the Invasion of a powerful Enemy the frequent Invasions of the Indians in Alliance with them.
