

Henry Enock's had taken his Goods, and further this Deponent saith not.

May 10th 1757

Sworn before me Tho: Catron

Frederick County in the Colony of Virginia to wit:

The Deposition of James Morgan aged thirty eight Years and upwards taken on the holy Evangelists of almighty God before Thomas Catron Gentleman a Justice of the Peace for the said County the 10th Day of May 1757 deposes and saith that he was at the Plantation of Col: Thomas Cresap called the old Town some time last Fall in Company with Henry Enock's junior and William Lockhart and saw the said Henry Enock's have a brass Kettle which this Deponent imagined would hold about two Gallons and understood that the same was the Property of the said Cresap, and this Deponent further saith that he saw the said William Lockhart take a Parcel of Spoons out of a sack which had been buried in the Ground but dug up again, and that this Deponent saw the said Henry Enock's receive the said Spoons from the said William Lockhart, put them into his Wallet, and carry them away and this Deponent further saith that he saw another large Kettle by the aforesaid Hole which this Deponent took care to carry into the Court and left in a Shed, and that this Deponent told John Nicks where he had left it, that he might give an Account of the same to the said Cresap or any of his Family that should come that Way, and this Deponent further saith that Lawrence Poff and Robert Poff told this Deponent there was two Counds of Powder and 12 or 13 of Musquet Balls hid in the Loft of their Father's House, and that if this Deponent would take the Trouble to move some iron and look for it he should be welcome to it if he could find it, and this Deponent further saith that in looking for the said powder and Lead he found sundry Looking Glasses hid in the said House some of which he took and carried away, and that one Night when this Deponent was at the said Poff's House on the South Branch of Potomack the said William Poff & his Sons the said Lawrence Poff and Robert Poff came there and brought an Iron Pot with them with a Bit broke out of the Edge which this Deponent had seen in the said Cresap's lower Court sometime before which Pot the said Poff told this Deponent he had brought for him to cook in while he stayed there, and that the said Poff told this Deponent it was his Pot, and further this Deponent saith not.

May 10th 1757

Sworn before me Tho: Catron.

Frederick County in the Colony of Virginia to wit:

The Deposition of James Cox aged nineteen Years or thereabouts taken on the holy Evangelists of almighty God before Thomas Catron Gentleman a Justice of the