

216

Deane for the County aforesaid the 10th Day of May 1757 deposed and saith that he being at the House of Henry Crocks son in law upon some time last Fall saw a Jug of Melage in the said House which he heard Jacob Lane tell Henry Crocks saying that his son Henry Crocks junior from the Plantation of Col. Thomas Cresap called the Old Town, and further this Deponent saith not.

May 10th 1757 Sworn before me Tho: Catron

Frederick County in the Colony of Virginia to wit

The Deposition of John Nichols aged forty eight Years or thereabouts taken on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God before Thomas Catron Gentleman a Justice of the Peace for the County aforesaid the 10th Day of May 1757 deposed and saith that sometime last Fall as this Deponent and several others had been up to Fort Cumberland they called at Col. Thomas Cresap's House at the old Town, and saw one David Morgan pick up a Kettle which lay by the said Cresap's Upper Fort, which he the said David Morgan said he would carry home, and mended his the said David Morgan's Kettle with and this Deponent further saith that some time after as he was going up towards the said Cresap's Plantation again he saw the said Morgan have several Looking Glasses which this Deponent imagined were brought from the said Cresap's Plantation, and this Deponent further saith that he has heard Jacob Lane say several Times that Henry Crocks junior had broke a Jug that was buried in a Hole in the said Cresap's Plantation, in Order to get at a Kettle that was buried in the same Hole, and that the said Henry Crocks junior was going to take the same away but that the said Lane threatened to tell the said Cresap of it and this Deponent further saith that he saw an Ox at the House of Henry Crocks son in law upon which this Deponent suspected the said Henry Crocks had stolen from the said Cresap's House, and in examining him about it the said Henry Crocks son told this Deponent that somebody had brought the same and hid it under his Hoop, and this Deponent further saith that he heard the said Crocks say that Rogues made a practice of stealing things and hiding them under his Hoop, and further this Deponent saith not.

May 10th 1757 Sworn before me Tho: Catron

Frederick County in the Colony of Virginia to wit

The Deposition of Isaac Thomas aged twenty one Years or thereabouts, taken on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God before Thomas Catron Gentleman a Justice of the Peace for the County aforesaid the 10th Day of May 1757 deposed and saith that this Deponent and one Jacob Lane having been up at Fort Cumberland sometime last Fall,