Worcester County for

John Dolby of Worcester County in the Province of Maryland Planter Aged thirty nine years thruabouts being sworn on the holy Evangelis of Almighty God Depoent and saith that he hath lived on the Branches of Deep Creek near unto the head of Mankicks River for thirty two years past & that he well knows a place called and known by the name of Green Branch and also called the Reverdams near to where a certain Abraham Ingram lived and that he this Depoent hath been sundry times informed and always understood that the Branch and Reverdams aforesaid and the Drains issuing therefrom are the Divisional Bounds between the Province of Maryland and Supra County and this Depoent further saith that his Plantation whereon he now lives & hath lived for the space of thirty years as aforesaid is distant from the River which he hath heard called the White Hill River about one Mile and that all the Inhabitants called around it hold their Lands under the Lord Baltimore and have always been quietly possessed of their Lands under their Rights and that he this Depoent never heard that any of the Inhabitants of Supra County claimed any Lands near there under Pennsylvania Rights & that the said River is six or seven Miles within the reputed Bounds aforesaid of the Province of Maryland and this Depoent further saith that he well knows the Place over Gravely Branch formerly called the Wading Place where now is a bridge and that that Place from all that he ever heard or understood is six or seven Miles within the reputed Bounds aforesaid of the Province of Maryland and further this Depoent saith not

John Dolby

Worcester County for

Edward Callaway of Worcester in the Province of Maryland Aged forty eight years or there abouts being sworn on the holy Evangelis of Almighty God Depoent and saith that about forty years past he settled in Cedar Creek Hundred in the County of Supra and as he was travelling to the Colony of Supra aforesaid he happened at the House of a certain Cornelius Lofters in company with a certain Joseph Collins and upon their asking the said Lofters if they were there in Maryland or in the County of Supra the said Lofters said that they had just then entered into Supra County for that the Branch over the River of him the said Lofters which they had just crossed was the Division between Supra County & the County of Worcester in the Province of Maryland and that the House of him the said Lofters was the nearest House along the Road that was in Supra County and that the aforesaid Branch is the main Branch issuing out of the Reverdams or Drains and this Depoent further saith that he is well acquaint ed with the Place where the Bridge is over Gravely Branch and that he hath always understood that that Place is several Miles within the County of Worcester and that he never heard that any Person claimed any Lands under Pennsylvania Titles near the said Bridge and that the reputed Bounds of Maryland are far above & beyond the aforesaid Bridge and further this Depoent saith not
