may point out which it is hoped will oblige them so to Divide their Attention and Forces as well as the various difficulties may vary and successful.

It is unnecessary to add any thing to勗勗 your Lord in the execution of his Majestys Commands on this great Occasion where the future safety and welfare of America and of your own Province in Particular are so nearly concerned: And the King doubts not from your known fidelity and attachment that you will exert yourself with the utmost Application & Dispatch in this promising & decisive Crisis.

I am with great truth & regard etc

Your most obedient humble Servt

Sir

New York 21st February 1760.

With his Majestys Commands for the Reduction of Canada received last night, I likewise had at my disposal Mr Pitts Circular Letter to their Northern and Southern Governors of the 7th Jan<sup>y</sup> last, the original of which you received, and whereby you will see, that his majesty having nothing so much at heart as to improve the great and important Advantage gained by the last Campaign in North America and not troubling that all his faithful and brave Subjects there will continue most chearfully to co-operate with, and accord to the utmost the large expense of extraordinary succour supplied by the Kingdom of Great Britain for their Preservation and future Security; and his majesty considering that the several Provinces from Pennsylvania inclusive to the Southward are well able with proper encouragement to furnish a body of several thousand men to join the Kings Forces in those parts for some offensive Operations against the enemy and his majesty not judging it expedient to limit the Seal and Reward of any of his Officers by making a Regulation of the same to be Praised by each respectively for this most important Service he (H<sup>r</sup> Secretary Pitt) is commanded to signify to you the Kings Pleasure, that you do so forthwith use your utmost Endeavours and influence with the Council and Assembly of your Province to induce them to raise with all possible Dispatch within your Government no less a body of men as the Number and Situation of its Inhabitants may allow, in the due performance of which service it is hoped and expected they will not again fail in their duty to the King, as they have done the two last Campaigns; and forming the same into Regiments as far as shall be found convenient that you do direct them to hold themselves in readiness as early as may be to March to the Rendezvous at such Place or Places as may be named for that Purpose by the Commander in Chief of his majestys Forces in America or by the Officer who shall be appointed to command the Kings forces in those parts in order to proceed from thence in conjunction with a body of his majestys British Forces and under the supreme Command of the Officer to be appointed as above so as to be in a situation to begin by the first of May if possible or as soon after as shall be otherwise practicable such offensive Operations as shall be judged by the Commander of his majestys Forces in those parts most expeditious for Alleviating the Enemy.

The Kings Directions on the aforesaid Subject are so fully stated in the above abstract I have only to request that you would accept, your utmost endeavours to incite & encourage your Assembly to the full & due execution of the Kings Commands in a manner so essential to the future welfare and Prosperity of the several Provinces and the success of the ensuing decisive and (it is greatly hoped) last Campaign in North America; Which desirable end cannot be better attained than by Commencing the Operations as early as will be practicable, and that nothing may be left undone that is practicable for me to attempt in the execution of his Majestys Commands I must be urgent with you to quicken & prosecute the Service of your Province so that there may be Assembled at the Rendezvous which I shall hereafter appoint by the tenth of April at furthest.

I have also in Command from his majesty to recommend to you the collecting & putting into a proper Conservator all the arms which can be anywise rendered serviceable or that can be found within your government in order that the same may be employed as far as they will go in this Emergency: As a further Reason for which I refer you to my Letter of the 16 of February 1759 and now offer you the same Encouragement I did then say that for every one of such Arms as any of your men shall bring with them & that may be required or laid in Account to me I will pay at the Rate of twenty five Shillings a Hirelock. From this Encouragement your known fidelity & attachment to his majesty I have no Doubt of your exerting yourself to the utmost on this great Occasion where the future welfare & safety of America & of your own Province in Particular are so nearly concerned. I am with great respect

Sir

Your most obedient humble Servt
