Hundred and Sixty Three, In the Third Year of His Majestys Reign aforesay whereof is hereunto annexed, as also a letter from the Right honourable the Earle Bramont, One of His Majestys Principal Secretaries of State signifying that it is His Majestys Pleasure, I should cause the said Proclamation to be Published in all the Proper Places under my Government:

I HAVE therefore thought fit, with the advice of his Lordships Council of State to Publish this my Proclamation, notifying the same to all his Majestys Subjects and Strictly charging requiring the several Sheriffs of the Respective Counties of this Province at the most usual Publick Places in their Said Counties as soon as Conveniently may be with all solemnity possible to publish the same; and I do hereby further will and require the several Sheriffs of this Province to give notice to the Magistrates of their respective Counties as soon as Possible, to meet and appoint a Day for Publishing his Majestys Said Proclamation, And I do hereby command the several Sheriffs, and all others his Lordships Officers both Civil and Military as also the Militia in the Respective Counties, to attend in the handsomest Manner, at the time so appointed for performing the same;
