

Proprietaries, to grant such Licences without Fee or Reward taking especial care to insert therein a condition, that such Licence shall be void, and the security forfeited, in case the Person, to whom the same is granted, shall refuse or neglect to observe such Regulations as He shall think Proper to prescribe as aforesaid. And We do further expressly enjoin and require all Officers whatever, as Well Military as those employ'd in the Management and Direction of Indian affairs within the Territories reserved as aforesaid for the Use of the said Indians, to seize and apprehend all Persons whatever, who standing charged with Treasons, Misdemeanors of Treason, Murders, or other Felonies or Misdemeanors, shall fly from Justice, and take Refuge in the said Territory, and to send them under proper Guard to the Colony where the Crime was committed of which they stand accused, in order to take their Trial for the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James the Seventh Day of October, One Thousand Seven hundred and Sixty three, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

And whereas a Copy of the said Proclamation hath been transmitted to me by the Right honourable the Lords Commissioners of Trade and Plantations, who have also Signified to me his Royal Will and Pleasure, that the same should be Published in the several Parts of my Government; to the End that all His Majesty's Subjects there may pay due Obedience thereto. I have therefore, in Obedience to the said Royal Order, Signified to me as aforesaid, with the Advice of his Lordships Council of State, caused the said Proclamation to be this Day Published at the City of Annapolis and I do hereby strictly charge and command the several Sheriffs of this Province so make this his Majesty's Proclamation Publick in their respective Counties, in the usual Manner, that all His Majesty's Subjects within the same, may take notice thereof, and conform themselves thereto accordingly.

Given at the City of Annapolis, this Twelfth Day of January, in the Thirteenth year of His Lordships Dominion, Anno Domini 1764.

John Archb. Lt. Gov.

Horatio Sharpe
