His Excellency is pleased to deliver to this Board the following Answer to the Address of the 27. May last: —

Gentlemen

Having soon after the Conclusion of the last Session transmitted to the Lord Proprietary the Report and Address you presented to me the 27. May last on Occasion of the Instruction I had then laid before you I was lately favoured with another Instruction from his Lordship revoking the former and he is pleased to assure me that such is his Confidence in your Wisdom Zeal and Attachment to his Service that whatever we shall recommend will at all times engage his ready Compliance, and that we cannot give him greater Satisfaction than by pointing out how he may give Satisfaction to Ourselves and to the People of this Province. —

13. Nov. 1766.
