

which the Verdict was founded - M. Ghuselan in his Evidence only declared that the Confession was taken by him and that the Prisoner made it freely - I am Sir

To
His Excellency the Governour
29. April 1767.

Your Excellency's most Obedient humble Servant
Beale Bordley.

Most Honoured Sir

As it is my hard Misfortune now to lay under Sentence of Death and under hard Irons and Chains confined down and knowing there is no One in this World can Release me but your Honour most humbly beg and pray for Compassion at your Hands and not let me Die as I was brought to it by a most cruel and Vice Man; I am now in Prime of Youth and heartily Repent for all my Crimes past and if you will please to spare my Life I will forever hereafter Lead a Good Honest Life and always have a Due Regard of steering into any kind of Sin I should willingly by be Banished of this Province and never more be seen in it, pray Good Sir have Compassion on your Poor afflicted Servant. and am with the greatest Submission - John Wilson.
