

the Reign of King Charles the second, on the several Plantation Commodities therein enumerated, doth not give Liberty to carry the said Goods to any other Place than to some of Our Plantations, or to great Britain only and that notwithstanding the Payment of the said Duties, Bond must be given to carry the said Goods to some of the said Plantations or to great Britain and to no other Places.—

9. He shall every three Months, or oftener, or otherwise as there shall be opportunity of Conveyance, transmit to the Commissioners of Our Treasury, or Our High Treasurer for the time being, and to the Commissioners of Our Customs in London, a List of all Ships and Vessels trading in the said Province of Maryland according to the form or Specimen hereunto annexed, together with a List of the Bonds taken pursuant to the Act passed in the 22<sup>d</sup> and 23<sup>d</sup> Years of King Charles the Second's Reign intituled "An Act to prevent planting Tobacco in England and for Regulating the Plantation Trade" and he shall cause Demand to be made of every Master at his Clearing of an Invoice of the Contents and Quality of his Lading, according to the form hereunto also annexed, and inclose a copy thereof by some other Ship, or for want of such Opportunity by the same Ship under cover Sealed and Directed to the Commissioners of Our Treasury, or Our High Treasurer for the time being, and to the Commissioners of Our Customs in London and send another copy of the said Invoice in like manner to the Collector of that Port in this Kingdom for the time being, to which such Ship shall be said to be bound.

10. Whereas by the aforesaid Act for the Encouragement of Trade, no Commodities of the Growth Production or Manufacture of Europe, Except Salt for the Fishery of New England and Newfoundland, Wines of the Growth of the Madeiras or Western Islands or Azores, Servants and Horses from Ireland, and all Sorts of Victuals of the Growth and production of Ireland, and Salt to the Provinces of Pennsylvania, New York, Nova Scotia, and Quebec, in pursuance of five Acts passed in the 13th Year of the Reign of King George the first, in the third Year of his late Majestys Reign, and in the second fourth and sixth Years of Our Reign, shall be imported into any of Our Colonies or Plantations, but what shall be bona fide and without Frauds laden and shipped in Great Britain and in Ships duly Qualified, He shall in his Utmost endeavour for the due Observance thereof; and if contrary hereunto, any Ship or Vessel shall import into Our said Province of Maryland any Commodities of the Growth Production or Manufacture of Europe, (but what are before excepted) of which due Proof shall not be made, that the same were shipped and laden in some Port of Great Britain, by producing Logbooks or Certificates under the Hands and Seals of the Officers of Our Customs in such Port or Place where the same were laden, such Ship or Vessel, and Goods shall be forfeited, and he is to give in Charge, that the same be seized and Prosecuted accordingly —

11. And in order to prevent the Acceptance of forged Logbooks or Certificates, which hath been practiced to Our great Prejudice he is to give effectual Orders that all such European Goods as by the said Act are to be shipped and laden in Great Britain, Logbooks for the same be from hence produced to the Collectors or other Officers
