

your own Discretion altogether as to attacking any Enemy Vessel and if you should be so fortunate as to take a prize, send her, if the Chance is equally good for her getting into port, to Mr. Harrison at Martinique with Directions to transmit accounts as soon as possible <sup>the men may be paid here</sup> that when you arrive again upon the Coast, if convenient, run into one of the Inlets, Inimiquant we would prefer, which would be the best port too for a prize on all Accounts if you send any to the Continent - You will enquire in any port you may go <sup>may be had and what your produce</sup> what may be disposed of there, and the prices for the advantage of our <sup>Partners</sup> as well as the public, wishing you a prosperous Voyage -

Ordered, That the western shore Treasurer pay to Elisha Winters seventeen pounds eleven shillings and Ten pence Balk of Acc. pass'd

That, the said Treasurer pay to Capt. Thomas Coursey five hundred & eight pounds, Eleven shillings & eight pence per pay Role exclusive of any other Accounts -

That the Commissary of Stores at Amst. deliver Sundry to Captain Thomas Coursey -

Vide Lres. to William Hayward, Lewis Gale & Tho. Jones Esquires
Lee Book. N. 1.

Saturday Aug. 9th 1777

Present as on Yesterday

Ordered, That the western shore Treasurer pay to Richard Sprigg Esquire seven pounds, six shillings & eight pence due on Account pass'd

That the said Treasurer pay to Thomas Am Lee Esq<sup>r</sup> sixty one pounds seventeen shillings & six pence for Attendance on Court pardon issued to William Morgan of Starford County -

Monday August 11th 1777

Present as on Saturday except Mr. Rogers & Mr. Lee

Ordered That the western shore Treasurer pay to Benjamin Parsons eighteen pounds two shillings due on Acc. pass'd the 10th

That the said Treasurer pay to John & Amis eight pounds five shillings on acc. pass'd -