

Whereas the Brewhouses of James Street, a Ware house of Hugh Young and Kitchen all in Baltimore Town have lately at Different times been burnt down and there is great Reason to suspect that the said Houses were maliciously set on fire and lately the Stable of James Lister and the Stable of Jacob Miller in Baltimore Town have been attempted to be burnt by putting fire therein which was happily discovered Time enough to prevent the Effect most wickedly intended. I therefore with the advice of the Council promise a Pardon to any person concerned in the burning or setting fire to all or any of the said Houses who shall first <sup>make Discovery</sup> to a Magistrate of his or her accomplices in the said Crime

Charles Jones, Samuel W. Maguder and Richard Thompson Justices of the Peace for Montgomery County certify under their hands and Seals "That Thomas Richardson Assistant Commissary of Purchases for the Continental Army hath this Day reported to us that the Quantity of Wheat which was lately seized by him in George Town as the property of a certain John Hall of Baltimore County (which seizure has been approved of by us) has been ascertained and said Wheat received by him, and that the whole Quantity thereof is two hundred and forty eight Bushells."
